AMENDED AND RESTATED FACULTY BYLAWS

JACKSONVILLE UNIVERSITY

PART ONE: FACULTY ASSEMBLY PROCEDURES

These procedures define the official governance body of the faculty of Jacksonville University, henceforth referred to as the Faculty Assembly, and will provide the operational structure and procedures for that body, its officers, and its committees.

ARTICLE I: THE FACULTY ASSEMBLY

Section 1. Faculty

a. Definition of Faculty

A full-time faculty member is one whose major employment is with the institution, whose primary assignment is in teaching and/or research, and/or whose employment is based upon a full-time faculty contract.

- b. For the purposes of faculty business described in the Faculty Bylaws, which includes but is not limited to voting, attending special sessions, and serving on faculty committees, a voting member of the Faculty Assembly is one whose employment is based upon a full-time faculty contract with Jacksonville University and whose contracted teaching responsibilities is equal to or greater than 50 percent of the typical load in their College.

Section 2. The Faculty Assembly

- a. The Faculty Assembly shall be the name given to the official body consisting of all full-time faculty members at Jacksonville University.
- b. Officers assigned to the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) program who have faculty rank will be considered members of the Faculty Assembly.
- c. The official number of faculty used for determining a quorum, and for other provisions of these bylaws referring to the number of faculty, shall be the number meeting the definition of Section 1 as of the second Monday of the Fall semester each year, as reported by the Office of Academic Affairs.

ARTICLE II - FACULTY GOVERNANCE

Section 1. Responsibilities of the Faculty Assembly

- a. The Faculty Assembly has special responsibility for oversight and shall be consulted on all proposals regarding the formation of faculty governance committees; creation and delivery of curriculum; policies on student media; and academic standards including but not limited to graduation requirements, criteria for probation and suspension of students, the academic calendar, standards for academic progress, certification for degrees, academic honesty, honors program, independent studies, academic honors, study abroad, and internships.
- b. The Faculty Assembly has shared responsibility through recommendations to and consultation with the chief academic officer (CAO), the President and the Board of Trustees on the establishment of new academic programs; the structure of the academic organization; the procedures for evaluating faculty effectiveness; admission standards; the University's mission; strategic planning; financial matters including but not limited to faculty development policies, academic budgeting, and fringe benefits; the abolition of programs, majors academic units or subunits; academic ceremonies and public occasions; as well as policies regarding scholarships and academic support services.
- c. The Faculty Assembly shall be consulted in many areas. To formally consult with the faculty, the administration shall inform the faculty chair, and the faculty can provide responses through the faculty chair or appropriate channels. Areas of consultation include changes in athletic policy; in library policy; administration organizational changes; policies on student loans and financial aid; the formation of new University committees; and any matter involving governance and good repute of the University and the welfare and morale of faculty and students.
- d. Faculty members, as a body, adhere to self-regulation in the interest of achieving the highest possible standard of ethical conduct.

Section 2. Meetings of the Faculty Assembly, Executive Committee, and Standing Committees

- a. The Faculty Assembly shall meet monthly during the full months of the fall and spring semesters. The Assembly may consider any matter referred to it by the executive committee, faculty committees, colleges, divisions, or by one or more of its members. Resolutions passed at each meeting shall be forwarded to the CAO.

134 by secret electronic ballot during and within two days of Faculty Assembly at 135 which the vote was called. Preferential voting is not permitted in these situations.
136

137 b. Voting of proposals and resolutions shall be by secret electronic ballot during and 138 within two days of Faculty Assembly at which the vote was called.
139

140 Section 4. Officers of the Executive Committee of the Faculty

141
142 a. The Executive Committee of the Faculty shall consist of the chair of the 143 faculty, the vice chair of the faculty, the secretary, and the immediate past 144 chair of the faculty.
145

146 b. The chair of the faculty, the vice chair of the faculty, and the secretary shall 147 be elected by the Faculty Assembly for a two-year term, not to exceed two 148 consecutive terms. The Appointments Committee is responsible for soliciting
149 and receiving the nominations by the March meeting. Nominations may also 150 be made from the floor by any Faculty Assembly member during the March
151 meeting. The election will be held in April. Any tenured member of the 152 Faculty Assembly except unit administrators shall be eligible for the 153 Executive Committee. Unit administrator's roles and administrative 154 responsibilities are indicated in their contracts and their position would be 155 defined in discussion with their academic dean. Typically, faculty with these 156 roles would have a percent teaching load of 50 percent or less (Part Two, 157 Article II, Section 3).
158

159 c. The Chair of the Faculty must be a full-time tenured professor with a 160 terminal degree in their field.
161

162 d. Officers shall assume office following spring term graduation.
163

164 e. The parliamentarian shall be appointed by the chair of the faculty and serve 165 concurrently but is not a member of the Executive Committee. The 166 appointment is for a two-year term, not to exceed two consecutive terms,
167 unless approved by majority faculty vote.
168

169 f. A vacancy in the office of chair of the faculty prior to the expiration of the 170 term shall be filled by special election if the amount of time remaining in the 171 unexpired term is greater than or equal to one academic semester; otherwise,
172 the vice chair of the faculty shall assume the office of chair of the faculty. A 173 vacancy in the office of vice chair of the faculty or secretary prior to the
174 expiration of the term shall be filled by special election if the amount of time
175 remaining in the unexpired term is greater than or equal to one academic 176 semester; otherwise, the chair of the faculty shall appoint an interim.

177 Nominations and election for the position(s) will be held within the next
178 month. The newly elected officer(s) shall assume office immediately
179 following the election and will serve until the end of the predecessor's
180 unexpired term.

181

182 Section 5. Duties of the Faculty Officers

183

184 a. The chair of the faculty shall preside over the meetings of the Faculty 185 Assembly. The chair shall report on actions of the Board of Trustees to the 186 Faculty Assembly. The chair of the faculty shall meet at least twice a month
187 with the CAO. The chair of the faculty shall preside over the meetings of the 188 Executive Committee and the joint meeting of the Executive Committee and 189 the Committee Chairs. Additionally, the chair of the faculty shall represent 190 the faculty by advocating faculty interests on committees and serving as a
191 liaison of the faculty with students, the administration, the CAO, the Board
192 of Trustees, and other members of the University community. The chair of 193 the faculty serves as a member of the president's advisory body.

194

195 b. In the absence of the chair of the faculty, the vice chair of the faculty shall 196 assume the duties and responsibilities of the chair and may appoint a 197 temporary vice chair. Additionally, the vice chair shall review minutes and 198 accompanying materials, and ensure their timely distribution to members of 199 the Faculty Assembly. Furthermore, it is the responsibility of the vice chair to 200 publicize all meetings of the Appointments Committee and all committee
201 vacancies in a timely manner.

202

203 c. The secretary maintains all records of the Faculty Assembly (e.g. routing 204 forms, agendas, curricular proposals, etc.) and monitors the Faculty Assembly 205 budget.

206

207 d. The parliamentarian shall ensure that proper procedures are followed for 208 meetings of the Faculty Assembly and shall serve as elections officer in all 209 faculty elections.

210

211 ARTICLE III - COMMITTEE ON ACADEMIC FREEDOM AND GRIEVANCE

212

213 Section 1. Duties

214

215 It shall be the responsibility of the committee on Academic Freedom and 216 Grievance (see Statute I) to track and study developments and possible problems
217 in the area of academic freedom at Jacksonville University. Additionally, the 218 committee shall hear faculty grievances regarding pay issues, teaching 219 assignments, leaves, academic freedom, tenure and promotions, terminations, and 220 other academic issues.

Section 1. Duties

- a. The committee shall monitor the Faculty Bylaws, recommending revisions and amendments to the faculty assembly as necessary, and shall serve as a liaison to the administration regarding interpretation of the bylaws.

Section 2. Membership

- a. The Bylaws Committee shall be composed of seven faculty members, including the chair of the faculty, vice-chair of the faculty, the secretary of the faculty, and four other tenured members. The parliamentarian is an ex officio member of the committee.

Section 3. Appointments

- a. The four other tenured members of the faculty shall be appointed by the Committee Chairs.
- b. Each spring, the committee shall elect from among its members a chair-elect who will assume the responsibility of chair at the beginning of the next fall semester. Chairs may be re-nominated.
- c. The appointed members of the Committee shall serve a two-year term with a three-term limit.

ARTICLE VII - FACULTY STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1. General Policies

- a. Meetings of standing committees shall be open to other members of the faculty and the University community who shall have voice but no vote. Executive session may be called by the chair of the committee.
- b. A simple majority of the members of any committee enumerated in this article shall constitute a quorum.
- c. The term of office of all committee members shall be two years, not to exceed three consecutive terms. Membership shall rotate so that approximately half of the membership is nominated each year. At least half of each committee's membership, but no more than 75 percent, shall be tenured faculty.

  - e. The chair of each committee shall convene and conduct meetings, and report on the committee's activities to the Faculty Assembly and the chair of the faculty assembly. Recommendations shall be presented to the Faculty Assembly.
  - f. The chair of a committee shall designate a committee member to serve as the chair's alternate and conduct meetings in the chair's absence.
  - g. No faculty member shall serve on more than one of the committees enumerated in this Article, however, a faculty member may also serve on the committees enumerated in Articles III, IV, and V. Chairs of committees may also serve as faculty representatives on Board of Trustees' sub-committees.
  - h. Members of the Executive Committee shall not serve on any of the standing committees during the term in office.
  - i. Normal committee procedure shall be to meet at least once per month during the fall and spring semesters or as needed to complete tasks in an expedient manner.
  - j. All members of the University community may submit proposals to the standing committees. Standing committees should inform the Executive Committee within one month regarding the status of any submitted proposal. Submitters should consult the Executive Committee when they feel the standing committee has failed to take expedient action.
  - k. Standing committee members must attend meetings regularly. Failure to attend regularly will result in removal from the committee. The Appointments Committee shall be responsible for choosing a replacement.
  - l. Standing committee chairs will consult with the president of the student body for student appointments in cases where a student representative is specified in the bylaws as a member of the committee.
  - m. Chairs of the standing committees and the Executive Committee shall meet monthly within the fall and spring semesters or as necessary to discuss proposals and coordinate the Faculty Assembly agenda.

Section 2. Academic Standards Committee

- 436
437
438 a. The Academic Standards Committee shall be composed of seven members of the 439 faculty including at least one from each college, except the College of Law, and 440 the following ex-officio members: director of experiential learning, director of 441 financial aid, chief of financial aid, chief admissions officer, and registrar.
442
443 b. The committee shall receive and review proposals, make recommendations, and 444 monitor in the following areas: standards for admissions, satisfactory academic 445 progress, honors, the addition of experiential learning (including service learning 446 and research intensive) designations, speech intensive (SI), technology intensive 447 (TI), or writing intensive (WI) designations to existing courses or new courses
448 (for new courses this is in conjunction with the Curriculum Committee);
449 requirements for graduation; and policies on academic honesty, scholarships,
450 loans, and grants-in-aid.
451
452 c. The College of Law may, at its own discretion, make any and all changes to 453 policies solely administered by the College of Law related to admissions,
454 satisfactory academic progress, honors, experiential learning, graduation
455 requirements, scholarships, academic honesty, scholarships, loans, and grants-in-456 aid.

461 including at least one from each college, except for the College of Law.
462 Academic deans, the registrar, and a librarian are ex officio members. The 463 committee chair shall be a tenured faculty member.
464
465 b. The committee shall receive and review curriculum proposals and make 466 recommendations to the faculty assembly concerning the following: the addition 467 of new courses; the elimination of existing courses; significant changes to 468 existing courses and credit hours; changes that effectively create new courses;
469 course renumbering; requirements within majors, minors, and programs; the 470 creation or elimination of tracks/concentrations within majors or programs; the 471 creation or elimination of majors, minors, or programs (joint oversight with the 472 Planning and Budget Committee); and review of University majors.
473
474 c. A decision by the Committee to formally recommend the elimination or creation
475 of a program or department of instruction will be based essentially upon 476 educational and institutional considerations in light of the mission statement and 477 strategic plan of the University and as determined by data from annual program

535
- 536 b. The Planning and Budget Committee shall participate in the University's strategic 537 planning to include the establishment of financial priorities and the structure of 538 the campus environment. The committee shall report regularly to both the 539 University's planning body and the faculty regarding strategic planning and 540 budgeting.
541
- 542 c. The committee, the chief financial officer (CFO), and appropriate administrators
543 shall consult during the process of developing the University's annual budget.
544 The committee shall review complete summary financial reports with the CFO.
545
- 546 d. The Planning and Budget Committee shall also receive and review proposals and 547 make recommendations to the Faculty Assembly in the areas of strategic 548 planning, including; the academic calendar, the establishment of new academic 549 majors, minors, and programs (joint responsibility with the Curriculum 550 Committee); academic organization; the addition or elimination of unit
551 administrators; the formation of new colleges; and the elimination of majors,
552 minors, programs, and departments (joint responsibility with the Curriculum 553 Committee). All proposals shall include information on the anticipated financial 554 impact. New academic majors, minors, and programs approved by the committee 555 shall be reviewed by the committee three years after initial implementation and 556 the committee shall make a recommendation to the Faculty Assembly based on 557 the outcomes of the program.
558
- 559 e. As part of its program review responsibilities, The Planning and Budget

570 Section 8. Student Life Committee

571

572 a. The Student Life Committee shall be composed of seven members of the faculty
573 and three students, including the president of the student body and one member
574 of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Dean of Students, or 575 their designee, shall serve as ex officio.

576

577 b. The committee shall receive and review proposals and make recommendations to 578 the Faculty Assembly in all areas affecting student welfare and morale, including 579 the area of journalistic standards for student media.

580

581 c. The committee shall appoint an advisory Media Board composed of three 582 members of the faculty as well as the chair of the Division of Humanities and two 583 students who are not staff members of student media. The faculty advisors of 584 each media shall serve members. The Board meets as needed to fulfill the 585 functions delineated below:

586

587 1. The Board shall be charged with developing and proposing policy for student
588 campus publications. The Board makes these recommendations to the faculty
589 Student Life Committee.

590

591 2. The Board makes recommendations to the CAO concerning the appointment 592 of editors, managers, and business managers. The faculty advisor and the 593 current student media officers of each media select students to fill other 594 positions for which scholarships may be available.

595

596 3. The Board may make recommendations to the CAO in the appointment or 597 reassignment of faculty advisors. The Board may request legal advice through 598 the president's and CAO's office when necessary. Faculty advisors shall 599 insure that campus publications adhere to established media policies.

600

601 4. The Board does not exercise pre-publication or pre-broadcast review of 602 student media. However, the Board hears grievances from members of the 603 University community regarding the operation of campus media. The Board
604 adjudicates grievances by reference to the *Jacksonville University Guidelines
605 for Student Media*. The Board may recommend the reprimand or removal of 606 media officers. All such recommendations are forwarded to the CAO.

Section 9. Athletics Committee

- 609
611 a. The Athletics Committee shall be composed of seven members of the faculty with 612 representation from each college and the Faculty Athletics Representative. The 613 chief enrollment officer, the chief student life officer, the Registrar, a compliance
614 officer, a representative from student financial assistance, the Faculty Athletics
615 Representative, the chief athletics officer, an academic advisor for student
616 athletes, and one student representative from SAAC shall serve as ex officio
617 members. Representatives from admissions, student life, the registrar, athletics
618 compliance, financial aid, the Chief Athletics Officer, athletic bands, and the 619 director of athletic academic services shall serve as ex officio members.
620
621 b. The committee shall receive and review proposals and shall make 622 recommendations to the CAO and Faculty Assembly in the area of athletics, as 623 well as provide faculty input into the development of athletic policies and 624 academic standards for student-athletes. The goal of the committee shall be to 625 ensure the academic success and well-being of student-athletes.
626
627 c. The committee shall be concerned with the interface between the University's 628 athletic and academic programs. It shall report annually to the faculty assembly
629 regarding how well the athletic programs support the mission of the University.
630 This report could include such aspects as academic outcomes, graduation rates,
631 the addition and deletion of programs, and financial viability.

PART TWO: FACULTY RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

635
637 These articles constitute rules established by Jacksonville University to govern the 638 personnel and contractual affairs of the faculty.
639

ARTICLE I - ACADEMIC FREEDOM

640
641
642 Jacksonville University considers a free and unconstrained exchange of information
643 essential among its faculty, staff, and students. While the faculty fully supports the free
644 exchange of ideas, an explicit guarantee of academic freedom is made to faculty members
645 through this article. Jacksonville University adopts the following portions taken verbatim
646 from the AAUP 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure; a 647 restatement of principles first set forth in 1925:

648 The purpose of this statement is to promote public understanding and support of

652 individual teacher or the institution as a whole. The common good depends upon 653 the free search for truth and its free exposition.

654 Academic freedom is essential to these purposes and applies to both teaching

656 Academic freedom in its teaching aspect is fundamental for the protection of the 657 rights of the teacher in teaching and of the student to freedom in learning. It 658 carries with it duties correlative with rights.

659 Tenure is a means to certain ends; specifically: (1) freedom of teaching and 660 research and of extramural activities, and (2) a sufficient degree of economic 661 security to make the profession attractive to men and women of ability. Freedom 662 and economic security, hence, tenure, are indispensable to the success of an 663 institution in fulfilling its obligations to its students and to society.

664 ACADEMIC FREEDOM

665 a. Teachers are entitled to full freedom in research and in the publication of the results,
666 subject to the adequate performance of their other academic duties; but research for 667 pecuniary return should be based upon an understanding with the authorities of the

673 c. College and university teachers are citizens, members of a learned profession, and 674 officers of an educational institution. When they speak or write as citizens, they should be
675 free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community
676 imposes special obligations. As scholars and educational officers, they should remember
677 that the public may judge their profession and their institution by their utterances. Hence
678 they should at all times be accurate, should exercise appropriate restraint, should show
679 respect for the opinions of others, and should make every effort to indicate that they are 680 not speaking for the institution.

681 All full-time, part-time, adjunct, and visiting faculty members, tenured and non-tenured,
682 enjoy full academic freedom. All full-time and part-time students enrolled in any course, 683 credit or non-credit, also enjoy full academic freedom.

684

685 Any faculty member who believes his or her academic freedom to have been abridged
686 may direct a written grievance to the chair of the Committee on Academic Freedom and 687 Grievance, citing the abridgment in detail, providing corroborating documentation, and 688 requesting corrective action.

Section 1. Eligibility

Tenure exists to protect academic freedom in teaching, professional development, scholarship, and service (which can include university service or administrative duties for their academic unit or subunit). Faculty members earn tenure by demonstrating their expertise and achievement in these areas. For this reason, Jacksonville University awards tenure for faculty work, but not for administrative work. Tenure is granted in accordance with procedures developed by faculty and administration. A faculty member is eligible to earn and hold tenure unless he or she is appointed to a non-tenured track position.

- a. A faculty member who is eligible to earn tenure shall be so informed in the annual contract. The contract shall state both the year of service during which tenure may be considered and year of service during which the pre-tenure review will be conducted.
- b. A faculty member is eligible to earn and hold tenure unless he or she is appointed to a non-tenure track position. Faculty in non-tenure track positions may transition to tenure-track positions and become eligible to earn and hold tenure in accordance with Section 2 of this Article.
- c. A new faculty or academic administrator hire, having been tenured at another institution, may be granted tenure by the University, and in consultation with the tenured faculty of the appropriate units, in accordance with Section 9 of this Article.

When the University hires new faculty or academic administrators tenured at other institutions, it may, after consultation with tenured faculty in the appropriate units as defined in Part Two, Article II, Section 4, recognize tenure granted by another institution. Alternatively, academic administrators moving to faculty status may earn tenure by following standard procedures for tenure-track faculty. Deferred or early tenure decisions can be addressed on a case-by-case basis by the CAO, in consultation with the tenured faculty from that college.

Section 2. Transition to Tenure Track

- a. To transition from non-tenure track to tenure-track, the faculty member must submit to the unit administrator and dean a letter requesting consideration for transition to tenure-track status. The letter will include a document summarizing excellence in teaching, professional development and scholarship, and service at the level of tenure-track assistant professor.

Amendments: November 2007, February, March, November 2008, February 2009, May 2018, April 2019, May 2020, October 2022, February 2025

- 734        b. The letter and summary letter will be reviewed by the college's existing tenure
735        committee, or tenured faculty within the faculty member's academic unit, as well
736        as the unit administrator and dean. Recommendations made by the unit's 737        committee or tenured faculty, unit administrator, and dean will be submitted to the 738        CAO within three weeks of review.
739
- 740        c. Following a positive review by the CAO, the faculty member would begin the 741        process for transitioning to a tenure track position.
742
- 743        d. For faculty completing fewer than six years of service in their non-tenure track
744        position, a maximum of two years of service at Jacksonville University in a full-745        time, non-tenure track faculty position may be counted in the years of service for 746        tenure consideration. For faculty completing six or more years of service in their
747        non-tenure track position, up to three years of service at Jacksonville University 748        in a full-time, non-tenure track faculty position may be counted in the years for 749        service for tenure consideration. The negotiation process regarding number of 750        years of service that would be counted will include consultation with the college's 751        existing tenure committee or tenured faculty in the academic unit.
752
- 753        e. Transition to tenure-track status and timeline for review will be indicated in a
754        revised contract.
755
- 756        f. Should a non-tenure track faculty be denied consideration for transitioning to 757        tenure-track status, the faculty member may appeal the decision to the Academic 758        Freedom and Grievance Committee.
759

760        Section 3. Standards for Tenure

- 761
- 762        a. For tenure track faculty, an eligible faculty member to earn tenure will apply for 763        tenure after completing five years of service and completion of a pre-tenure
764        review. Three of the five years of service must have been completed at 765        Jacksonville University. A maximum of two years of service at other institutions 766        of higher learning with documentation of teaching, professional development and 767        scholarship, and service at the level of tenure track assistant professor or higher
768        may be counted in the years of service for tenure consideration. A maximum of 769        two years of service at Jacksonville University in a full-time, non-tenure -track
770        faculty position may be counted in the years of service for tenure consideration.
771
- 772        b. Faculty can request an extension of the tenure clock for childbirth, childcare, 773        medical illness, family care, or other extenuating circumstances for one year.
774        Faculty may not use more than two one-year extensions. The tenure candidate
775        will be reviewed under the same academic standards as a candidate who has not 776        extended the probationary period. The faculty member will submit their request
777        for extension of the probationary period no later than November 1 for pre-tenure

778 and no later than July 15 for a tenure portfolio. The request will be submitted to 779 the provost and copied to the faculty member's unit administrator and dean. The 780 provost will inform the faculty member of the decision in writing.

781

782 c. Tenure is determined for each individual based upon academic credentials and 783 years of service at Jacksonville University and other academic institutions (see 784 above paragraph (a) of this section). An affirmative tenure decision must be based 785 upon achievement in the areas of teaching, professional development and 786 scholarship (e.g. research and creative activities), and service to the university.
787 Faculty who have taken on administrative duties for their department or academic 788 unit may count these duties toward tenure. However, faculty on a tenure-track 789 appointment typically have at least a 50 percent teaching load. Additionally,
790 faculty members are expected to interact in a cooperative and collaborative
791 manner in fulfilling their professional obligations.

792

793 Section 4. Pre-Tenure Evaluations

794

795 a. Candidates for tenure will undergo a pre-tenure review during their mid-point of 796 service toward tenure at Jacksonville University as determined by the CAO in 797 consultation with the faculty member. A candidate who transitioned from non-798 tenure track status will submit his/her pre-tenure portfolio by February in of the 799 academic year of transition.

800

801 b. Candidates will submit a pre-tenure portfolio which provides evidence of the 802 candidate's achievements in the areas of teaching, professional development and 803 scholarship (e.g., research and creative activities), and service to the university.

804

805 c. Candidates will submit the portfolio by February 1 to their unit administrator.
806 Tenured unit members (exclusive of the unit administrator) will nominate and
807 elect a convener who shall receive the tenure portfolio from the unit administrator
808 and assemble the tenured members for a discussion of the candidate's progress
809 towards tenure as outlined in Part Two, Article II, Section 3(c) 2.

810

811 In cases where the unit decides that there are insufficient tenured unit members to 812 discuss the candidate's qualifications, the unit faculty may request a vote of the 813 college to designate a tenure committee(s). Such tenure committee(s) may be
814 formed by combining two or more units as deemed necessary by the unit. Once
815 established, the same committee will review future applicants, until the unit
816 requests for a change in the makeup of the committee. The tenured faculty will 817 determine by vote if unit administrators may be members of the tenure committee.
818 If unit administrators can serve on college tenure committee(s), the unit
819 administrators shall recuse themselves from reviews of candidates from their 820 respective units.

822 Upon request from the unit faculty, the dean will select a tenured member to 823 organize the vote to create the committee(s) from the identified unit(s); that
824 faculty member shall share the results of the vote and resulting committee
825 composition with the dean and unit administrators. The dean shall communicate
826 the committee makeup to the pre-tenure and tenure candidates by September 1. If
827 the candidate has concerns regarding the committee makeup, then the candidate
828 can explain the reason for the objection and request a different participant.
829 Candidates are recommended to meet with their unit head to review the whole
830 process so that the questions or concerns of the applicant could be addressed in 831 advance.

833 d. The convener will submit an agreed-upon summary letter of that discussion to the 834 unit administrator. In units without a unit administrator, the convener will submit 835 the summary letter directly to the dean. The summary letter shall be submitted to 836 the CAO, dean, and provided to the candidate on or before May 1. The dean will 837 forward the record of the pre-tenure review to the Committee on Tenure and 838 Promotion during the final tenure evaluation process.

839

840 Section 5. Timetable and Procedures for Tenure Evaluations

841

842 a. Faculty eligible to earn tenure will apply for tenure after completing five years of 843 service and completion of a pre-tenure review. Prior to applying, three of the five 844 years must have been completed at Jacksonville University. A maximum of two 845 years of service at other institutions of higher learning with documentation of 846 teaching, professional development and scholarship, and service at the level of 847 tenure track assistant professor or higher may be counted in the years of service
848 for tenure consideration. A maximum of two years of service at Jacksonville
849 University in a full-time, non-tenure-track faculty position may be counted in the 850 years of service for tenure consideration. In May of the academic year preceding 851 the tenure application, following the fifth year of service, the dean shall notify the 852 eligible faculty member that they must submit their tenure portfolio for 853 consideration to the division chair or higher unit administrator by on or before
854 October 15 of the next academic year.

855

856 b. On or before October 15 of the tenure application academic year, the faculty 857 member candidate for tenure shall submit to their unit administrator an 858 electronically accessible version of the tenure portfolio, which provides evidence
859 of the candidate's achievements in the areas of teaching, professional 860 development and scholarship (e.g. research and creative activities), and service to 861 the university, as well as the candidate's pre-tenure summary letter.

862

863 c. Tenured unit members (exclusive of the unit administrator) will nominate and 864 elect a convener who shall receive the tenure portfolio from the unit administrator

865 and assemble the tenured members for a discussion of the candidate's 866 qualifications.

867
868 In cases where the unit decides that there are insufficient tenured unit members to 869 discuss the candidate's qualifications, the unit faculty may request a vote of the 870 college to designate a tenure committee(s). Such tenure committee(s) may be
871 formed by combining two or more units as deemed necessary by the unit. Once
872 established, the same committee will review future applicants, until the unit
873 requests a change in the makeup of the committee. The tenured faculty will 874 determine by vote if unit administrators may be members of the tenure committee.
875 If unit administrators can serve on college tenure committee(s), the unit
876 administrators shall recuse themselves from reviews of candidates from their 877 respective units.

878
879 Upon request from the unit faculty, the dean will select a tenured member to 880 organize the vote to create the committee(s) from the identified unit(s); that
881 faculty member shall share the results of the vote and resulting committee
882 composition with the dean and unit administrators. The dean shall communicate
883 the committee makeup to the pre-tenure and tenure candidates by September 1. If
884 the candidate has concerns regarding the committee makeup, then the candidate
885 can explain the reason for the objection and request a different participant.
886 Candidates are recommended to meet with their unit head to review the whole
887 process so that the questions or concerns of the applicant could be addressed in 888 advance.

889
890 The convener will submit an agreed-upon summary letter of that discussion to the 891 unit administrator who will forward the letter to the dean. The tenured faculty in 892 the unit will determine by vote the following:

893
894 i. whether it will be the convener or the unit administrator who will administer
895 the vote for or against supporting the candidate for tenure,
896 ii. who will meet with the candidate to share the committee summary letter and 897 vote, and
898 iii. whether the summary letter will include the results of the vote for or against 899 supporting the candidate for tenure.

900
901 d. By December 1, the candidate also will be provided with both the summary
902 submitted by the convener and a copy of the unit administrator's evaluation and 903 recommendation for or against tenure. The candidate shall be informed in writing
904 by the unit administrator or in the summary letter submitted by the convener, 905 depending upon the will of the tenured faculty, whether the vote was favorable or 906 unfavorable.

- 908 e. By December 1, the unit administrator shall submit to the candidate's dean the 909 following information:
910
- 911 i. pre-tenure review evaluation summary letter
  - 912 ii. academic unit administrator's written evaluation and recommendation for or 913 against tenure
  - 914 iii. the written summary letter prepared by the convener
  - 915 iv. the result (overall favorable or unfavorable, not the numerical count) of the 916 vote of the tenured members of the academic unit
  - 917 v. the candidate's digital portfolio
- 918
- 919 f. By January 15, the dean shall submit his or her recommendation, along with the 920 entire contents of the tenure portfolio, to the Committee on Tenure and Promotion
921 for their its review and recommendation. The dean shall also provide the 922 candidate with a copy of his or her letter of recommendation for or against tenure.
923
- 924 g. The Committee on Tenure and Promotion shall review all materials submitted.
925 The final recommendation by of the Committee on Tenure and Promotion should 926 be submitted to the CAO by March 15.
927
- 928 h. The candidate can at any time rebut the recommendations made by the tenured
929 members of the academic unit, the unit administrator, or the dean. Rebuttals from 930 the candidate should be submitted within five business days of their receiving the 931 recommendation at each level and will be added to the portfolio prior to moving 932 to the next level.
933
- 934 i. The CAO shall use all portfolio materials and recommendations (favorable or 935 unfavorable) from the tenured members of the unit, the unit administrator, the 936 dean, and the Committee on Tenure and Promotion, in addition to any rebuttals
937 from the candidate, when making their final recommendation on tenure. The final 938 recommendation by the CAO shall be provided to the candidate by April 15. The 939 CAO shall then make recommendations to the president.
940
- 941 g. Upon the positive recommendation of the president, final approval for tenure 942 decisions is made by the Board of Trustees during the spring. Tenure goes into 943 effect with approval of the Board of Trustees. There is no tenure, absent approval
944 of the Board of Trustees.
945
- 946 k. A copy of all documents used in the tenure-granting process shall be retained by 947 the CAO for a period of three years from the time of the decision.

950 Section 6. Continuation of Tenure

951

952 A faculty member who has earned tenure continues to hold it so long as three conditions
953 continue to be met:

954

- 955 • the faculty member maintains and demonstrates professional competence;
- 956 • the faculty member adheres to legal and ethical standards;
- 957 • the faculty member's position is not terminated due to financial exigency.

958

959 The lapse of one or more of these conditions may result in the loss of tenure.

960

961 Although not necessarily, loss of tenure (based on Section 7 below) may mean immediate 962 dismissal. Employment may be continued on probationary terms to be set by the CAO.

963 Tenure may be reinstated on terms to be set by the CAO in consultation with the 964 Committee on Tenure and Promotion. For specifics regarding loss of tenure and 965 notification of said loss (see Part Two, Article IX).

966

967 Section 7. Post-Tenure Review

968

969 During the fifth year after receiving tenure, and every fifth year of service thereafter, a
970 tenured faculty member shall undergo a post-tenure review. This review shall be 971 conducted jointly by the unit administrator and the dean. For their review they shall use 972 annual evaluations, faculty activity reports, teaching evaluations, and other
973 documentation at their disposal covering the previous five-year period. The member
974 being evaluated shall provide a current curriculum vitae and goals for the next five years 975 in the areas of teaching, professional development and scholarship (e.g. research and 976 creative activities), and service, and shall be allowed to present additional documentation.
977 No portfolio is required of the faculty member.

978

979 The purpose of post-tenure review is to maintain and improve faculty performance and 980 should not be construed as a punitive device. The basic standard for appraisal shall be
981 whether the faculty member under review discharges his or her duties conscientiously
982 and with professional competence. The dean will submit a summary letter of that 983 discussion to the CAO and candidate within one month of the post-tenure review.

984

985 The faculty member does not bear the burden to justify retention. Furthermore, the dean
986 and unit administrator must both agree and demonstrate that there are serious deficiencies
987 in the overall performance of the faculty member to warrant the sanction of a post-tenure
988 probationary period.

989

990 If, on the basis of this review, the unit administrator and the dean find that the faculty
991 member's performance is unacceptable, the dean after consultation with the faculty
992 member shall recommend to the CAO that the faculty member be given a probationary
993 period of three years in which to improve his or her performance. Criteria for acceptable

994 improvement shall be detailed in writing and thoroughly discussed with and understood
995 by the faculty member. Failure to meet these criteria by the end of the probationary 996 period may constitute grounds for removal of a tenured faculty member under the 997 provisions of Part Two, Article IX, Section 3. All pertinent materials used in the 998 evaluation shall be retained by the dean for a period of five years.
999

1000 Section 8. Appeal

1001

1002 Should a faculty member disagree with the application of one or more of the provisions 1003 outlined in this article, he or she may submit a written appeal to the chair of the 1004 Committee on Academic Freedom and Grievance.
1005

1006 Section 9. Tenure Upon Hire

1007

1008 Faculty who have been granted tenure at another institution and shown evidence of 1009 excellence in the teaching, professional development and scholarship can negotiate tenure
1010 with the University at the time of hire to have that tenure recognized at Jacksonville
1011 University. The negotiation process will include consultation with the tenured faculty in 1012 the academic unit.

1015 ARTICLE III - NEW FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

1016

1017 Section 1. Filling a Vacancy

1018

1019 When the unit administrator, in consultation with the dean and the CAO, determines a
1020 vacancy in a subunit (e.g. department) exists, the chair shall, with the dean and CAO's
1021 approval, appoint a search committee. Prior to the search, the rank and salary range of the 1022 position shall be recommended to the CAO by the appropriate dean. The CAO shall 1023 inform the unit administrator and the search committee of the salary range. The search 1024 committee shall consist of at least three but no more than five faculty members, one of 1025 whom should be tenured. The unit administrator, or academic dean shall not serve on the 1026 committee. Where faculty size in the unit permits, the chair of the search committee shall 1027 be from the discipline in which the vacancy exists, and the majority of committee
1028 members shall be from that discipline. Other committee members may be from outside
1029 the discipline and one member may be from outside the college. The search committee
1030 shall make an appropriate search to select and rank the candidates who seem best
1031 qualified to fill the needs of the department. After preliminary discussions with the top 1032 candidates about rank, salary range, and other pertinent information, the chair of the 1033 search committee shall invite a minimum of two but generally the top three candidates to 1034 the campus for interviews.

1035 Section 2. Conducting a Search

1036

1037 Members of the faculty and administration shall interview the candidates, determine their 1038 suitability, and report to the chair of the search committee. The search committee shall 1039 then rank the acceptable candidates and the chair of the committee shall inform the unit
1040 administrator of the committee's decision. The unit administrator shall then forward to 1041 the dean the committee's rankings and recommendation. If the administration and the 1042 search committee cannot reach agreement on a candidate, all parties shall meet to seek 1043 consensus.

1044

1045 Section 3. Appointment of a Faculty Member

1046

1047 After a candidate has been selected, the dean of the college, in consultation with the 1048 CAO, shall offer the individual a contract which stipulates rank, salary, teaching load,
1049 and complete information concerning tenure expectations and eligibility. The candidate
1050 will be given an appropriate timeframe in which to respond. If the contract is not 1051 accepted, the search committee shall be consulted before another candidate is offered a
1052 contract or the search is suspended

ARTICLE IV - RANK AND PROMOTION

1055

1056 Section 1. Evaluation for Promotion – Procedure

1057

1058 An eligible faculty member who wishes to be considered for promotion shall submit two
1059 hardcopies of their promotion portfolio or accessible electronic portfolio to the unit
1060 administrator no later than October 15. Evaluation of individuals for promotion will be 1061 done by the unit administrator, the dean, the Committee on Tenure and Promotion, the 1062 CAO, and the president. Prior to December 1, the unit administrator shall submit all 1063 supporting documents to the dean. The unit administrator shall also provide the candidate 1064 with a copy of their letter of recommendation for or against promotion.

1065

1066 By January 15, the dean shall submit his or her recommendation, along with the entire 1067 contents of the portfolio, to the Committee on Tenure and Promotion for their review and 1068 recommendation. The dean shall also provide the candidate with a copy of his or her 1069 letter of recommendation for or against promotion. The Committee on Tenure and 1070 Promotion shall review all materials submitted and make their recommendation for or 1071 against promotion to the CAO by March 15. A copy of their recommendation will be 1072 made available to the candidate by the CAO. The candidate can at any time rebut
1073 recommendations made by the unit administrator, the dean, or the Committee on Tenure
1074 and Promotion. Rebuttals from the candidate should be submitted within five business
1075 days of their receiving the recommendation and will be added to the portfolio. The CAO 1076 shall use all portfolio materials and recommendations (favorable or unfavorable) from the 1077 unit administrator, the dean, and the Committee on Tenure and Promotion. The CAO
1078 shall then make recommendations to the president. A copy of all documents used in the

1079 promotion-granting process shall be retained by the CAO for a period of three years from 1080 the time of the decision and then returned to the faculty member.

1081

1082 Section 2. Evaluation for Promotion – Criteria

1083

1084 Advancement from one academic rank to the next is determined for each individual in 1085 accordance with standards and procedures developed by faculty and administration and is 1086 based upon academic credentials, years of service at Jacksonville University and other 1087 academic institutions, and achievement in the areas of teaching, scholarship (e.g. research 1088 and creative activities), professional development, and service to the university.

1089

1090 Section 3. Category and Rank – General Description

1091

1092 To teach in a discipline, individuals of all categories and ranks must be at least
1093 academically qualified according to the accreditation criteria of the Southern Association
1094 of Colleges and Schools and criteria of the respective college's accrediting bodies.

1095

1096 a. Faculty positions at Jacksonville University fall into one of the following 1097 categories:

1098

1099 • Adjunct (Part Time) Faculty- This position is appropriate for part-time faculty
1100 members who are assigned class-related responsibilities only. Adjuncts
1101 normally teach no more than half-time and on course-by-course contracts.
1102 This is a non-tenure-track position.

1103

1104 • Visiting Faculty – These positions are appropriate as full-time teaching
1105 positions on a temporary basis. The individual may hold rank. Visiting
1106 Faculty are normally awarded one-year contracts. Visiting appointments 1107 cannot be extended beyond an individual's third year of employment at 1108 Jacksonville University. This is a non-tenure-track position. Visiting faculty
1109 positions can be converted to a tenure-track faculty position with the express
1110 approval of the faculty within the appropriate academic unit, the unit
1111 administrative, the dean, and the CAO.

1112

1113 • Non-Tenure-Track Faculty – This position is appropriate when an individual 1114 is selected to fulfill particular institutional needs and with the express
1115 approval of the faculty within the appropriate academic unit. This is a full-
1116 time faculty position. The individual may hold rank, is eligible for promotion, 1117 and may serve in such capacities as instructor, clinical assistant, associate or 1118 full professor, artist in residence, lecturer or senior lecturer, librarian, or 1119 endowed chairs. This is a non-tenure-track position with variable terms and 1120 contracts are typically renewed annually. If the contract is not to be renewed,
1121 then the timeline must be followed as indicated in Article VIII. A

- 1122 combination of administrative feedback, mentoring, and time for the faculty 1123 member to refocus teaching and research efforts seems in order.
1124
- 1125 • Tenure-Track Faculty – This position is a full-time faculty position. The 1126 individual will hold rank and is eligible for promotion. This is a tenure-track 1127 position and contracts are issued typically annually.
1128
- 1129 b. Rank shall be determined at the time of hire. To advance from one rank to 1130 another, faculty members shall go through the proper application process outlined 1131 in Part Two, Article IV. Full-time faculty at Jacksonville University may hold the 1132 following ranks:
1133
- 1134 • Assistant Professor – An individual holding this rank should demonstrate high
1135 potential to excel in the three areas of evaluation. Generally, a terminal degree 1136 in the area in which the individual teaches is required.
1137
  - 1138 • Associate Professor – An individual holding this rank typically holds a 1139 terminal degree in the area in which the individual teaches. The individual 1140 must have demonstrated the ability to excel in the three areas of evaluation.
1141 The individual must have completed a minimum of five years of full-time
1142 college-level teaching at the time of application. Two of the five years must be 1143 completed at Jacksonville University. These requirements apply in the case of 1144 promotion. However, the university administration can bring in a faculty 1145 member at any rank.
1146
  - 1147 • Professor – An individual holding this rank must have demonstrated 1148 excellence in the three areas of evaluation. A terminal degree in the area in 1149 which the individual teaches is required. The individual must have completed 1150 a minimum of ten years of full-time college-level teaching at the time of 1151 application. At least five of the ten years must be completed at Jacksonville
1152 University. These requirements apply in the case of promotion. The university 1153 administration can, however, at the time of hire bring in a faculty member at 1154 any rank.
1155
  - 1156 • Emeritus – Emeritus faculty are retired Jacksonville University faculty who 1157 have previously held tenure at Jacksonville University. “Emeritus faculty” is 1158 an honorary title which does not carry teaching or other duties, but which may 1159 entitle the holder access to certain college resources and facilities, if available.
1160 Faculty can be nominated or apply for this status. Nominations and 1161 applications are made to the CAO.

1163 Section 4. Salary Increases

1164

1165 In addition to any across the board and cost of living adjustments, salary increases shall 1166 be made on the basis of rank and merit. Recommendations for merit raises can be made
1167 by the CAO, on the basis of the academic dean's recommendation to the CAO, the unit
1168 administrator's report, and other relevant factors.

ARTICLE V - SELECTION OF UNIT ADMINISTRATORS

1171

1172 Within each college, organizational units are under the direction of the academic dean, 1173 who reports to the CAO. A college may have more than one level of administrative 1174 organization; these levels may differ among colleges. In colleges that employ a division
1175 structure, with a unit administrator (e.g., division chair) selected pursuant to Sections 1 –
1176 4 of this Article, the academic dean of the college may, in consultation with the CAO and 1177 faculty in the college, appoint an assistant or associate dean. In colleges without a 1178 division structure, an assistant or associate dean is considered a unit administrator
1179 comparable to division chairs and shall be selected pursuant to Sections 1 – 4 of this 1180 Article. The role of the elected chair administrator is to, among other duties, evaluate the 1181 faculty.

1182

1183 Section 1. Search Committee

1184

1185 When a vacancy appears or is expected in a unit administrator's position, the academic 1186 dean or CAO (as appropriate) will provide advance notice to the unit concerned. The unit 1187 will elect a search committee consisting of three faculty with an option by secret ballot.
1188 Membership on the committee shall not be considered a deterrent to selection as unit
1189 administrator. The incumbent unit administrator shall not be a member of this committee.

1190

1191 Section 2. Candidate Selection

1192

1193 Following the election of the search committee, names of interested tenured faculty
1194 members within the unit shall be submitted to the committee. A ballot shall be given to 1195 the faculty. The committee shall keep the results of the vote confidential.

1196

1197 Section 3. Recommendations

1198

1199 The search committee shall send its recommendation to the academic dean. If the college
1200 dean chooses to accept one of the recommended candidates, this candidate shall be 1201 recommended to the CAO. If the academic dean does not accept any of the candidates, 1202 the academic dean and the committee shall meet in an effort to reach consensus.

1204 Section 4. Appointment

1205

1206 The unit administrator shall be appointed by the CAO upon recommendation by the 1207 academic dean. The appointment shall be for a term of four academic years, or for three 1208 and a fraction if the appointment occurs during an academic year.

1209

1210 It is the responsibility of all unit administrators to distribute accurate and appropriate
1211 information to their constituencies. A unit administrator may be reappointed for 1212 additional terms by the academic dean and reviewed by the CAO. The procedures of 1213 Article V, Sections 1-4, shall be followed for reappointments.

1214

1215 In the case of an unexpected vacancy or in case of a deadlock, the CAO may appoint an 1216 acting unit administrator to serve until the above procedures can be fully implemented.
1217 Such acting appointments shall normally remain in effect a maximum of one year.

1218

1219 Section 5. Evaluation

1220

1221 A unit administrator shall be evaluated annually by the unit. Evaluations shall be 1222 forwarded to the dean and the CAO.

1223

1224 Section 6. Remuneration

1225

1226 The remuneration of a unit administrator in the form of reduced teaching load or in other 1227 ways shall be determined by the dean and the CAO.

1228

1229 Section 7. Subunit (e.g., Department) Chairs

1230

1231 When a unit administrator, academic dean, and the CAO determine a need exists to 1232 establish a subunit within a division or a school, a chair shall be appointed by the unit
1233 administrator and academic dean. The subunit chair shall report to the academic unit 1234 administrator, who with the approval of the dean shall determine the role and function of 1235 the subunit chair. The subunit shall be maintained as long as the unit administrator,
1236 academic dean, and the CAO determine the need exists. The remuneration of subunit 1237 chairs, in the form of reduced teaching load or in other ways, shall be determined by the 1238 dean and CAO.

1239

1240 Section 8. Removal

1241

1242 Unit administrators selected pursuant to Sections 1 – 4 of this Article, and subunit chairs,
1243 may be removed from the position of chair by the CAO after consultation with the 1244 academic dean and the tenured members of the academic unit and if it exists, the subunit.
1245 Such removal shall not affect the chair's or unit administrator's tenure or position as a 1246 member of the faculty.

ARTICLE VI - SELECTION OF THE CHIEF ACADEMIC OFFICER AND ACADEMIC DEANS

Section 1. Chief Academic Officer

a. Search Committee

When a vacancy occurs or is expected in the position of CAO, a faculty search committee shall be established. The search committee shall conduct a national search to select and rank the candidates who seem best qualified. The committee shall make recommendations on the candidates to the president.

Should the University decide to add, remove, or replace positions in Academic Affairs (e.g., Vice, Assistant- or Associate-CAO positions), the faculty should be consulted as outlined in Part I, Article II, Section 1c, regarding both the creation of any new position and who shall fill it.

The CAO search committee shall include two elected representatives from each college. The chair of the faculty shall serve on and chair the search committee. Half of the committee's membership shall be tenured faculty.

Should the chair of the faculty be a candidate, the individual shall withdraw from the search committee and be replaced by the vice chair of the faculty. Should the vice chair of the faculty also be a candidate, the secretary of the Faculty will replace the vice chair on the committee.

b. Candidate Selection

Candidates shall be interviewed by the faculty search committee, by the members of the faculty, and by the administration. Members of the faculty who interview the candidate shall report their views to the search committee. The search committee shall recommend acceptable nominees directly to the president.

c. Appointment

If the president is considering to appoint a CAO against the recommendations of the committee, the president shall meet with the committee and justify the reasons for the appointment.

The president, after discussion with the Executive Committee of the Faculty, may appoint an interim CAO, if necessary, until the procedures of this article result in an appointment. If a college is not represented on the Executive Committee of the Faculty, a representative shall be selected by the chair of the faculty to participate

1291 in the discussions between the Executive Committee of the Faculty and the 1292 president.

1293
1294 Interim appointments shall normally be for one calendar year. In the event it is 1295 necessary to extend the appointment, the president will confer in advance with the 1296 chair of the faculty and the Executive Committee. Extensions will normally not be 1297 made past one additional year.

1298

1299 d. Evaluation

1300

1301 The CAO shall be evaluated annually by the Faculty, as directed by Human 1302 Resources. Evaluations shall be forwarded to the president.

1303

1304 Section 2. Academic Deans

1305

1306 a. Search Committee

1307

1308 When a vacancy occurs or is expected in the position of an academic dean, a
1309 faculty search committee shall be established. The search committee shall conduct 1310 a national search to select and rank the candidates who seem best qualified. The 1311 committee shall make recommendations on the candidates to the CAO. Should the 1312 University decide to add assistant- or associate-dean positions, the faculty in the 1313 college should be consulted as outlined in Part I, Article II, Section 1c, regarding 1314 both the creation of any new position and who shall fill it.

1315

1316 The committee shall be composed of at least five and no more than seven elected 1317 representatives from the unit under the dean's jurisdiction and the chair of the 1318 faculty. Half of the committee's membership shall be tenured faculty. The 1319 committee should broadly represent the unit. The chair of the faculty shall preside
1320 over the search committee.

1321

1322 Should the chair of the faculty be a candidate, the individual shall withdraw from 1323 the search committee and be replaced by the vice chair of the faculty. Should the 1324 vice chair of the faculty also be a candidate or for any reason is unable to serve,
1325 the committee shall then elect one of its members to serve as chair.

1326

1327 b. Candidate Selection

1328

1329 Candidates shall be interviewed by the faculty search committee, by the members
1330 of the faculty, and by the administration. Members of the faculty who interview
1331 the candidate shall report their views to the search committee. The search
1332 committee shall recommend directly to the CAO, who shall inform the president 1333 of the committee's recommendation, as well as his/her their recommendation.

c. Appointment

If the president appoints (or announces the planned appointment of) a dean against the wishes of a majority of the committee, the president shall meet with the committee and justify the reasons for the appointment.

The president, after discussion with the CAO and Executive Committee of the Faculty, may appoint an interim dean, if necessary, until the procedures of this article result in an appointment. If the college is not represented on the Executive Committee of the Faculty, a representative from that college shall be selected by the chair of the faculty to participate in the discussions between the Executive Committee of the Faculty and the president.

Interim appointments shall normally be for one calendar year. In the event it is necessary to extend the appointment, the president will confer in advance with the chair of the faculty. Extensions will not be made past one additional year.

d. Evaluation

All deans shall be evaluated annually by the appropriate college faculty. Evaluations shall be administered by Human Resources and results forwarded to the CAO.

ARTICLE VII - SELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

Section 1. Search Committee

The faculty recommends that when selecting a new president of the University, the chair of the faculty be a member of the search committee created by the Board of Trustees. Additionally, the faculty recommends that four tenured faculty members, one elected by secret ballot within each college, shall serve on the search committee.

Section 2. Faculty Views

When a candidate for the presidency is brought to the campus, the faculty recommends it be given the opportunity to interview the candidate and report their views to a faculty representative of the search committee.

ARTICLE VIII - TERMINATION OF A NON-TENURED FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT

Termination of a non-tenured full-time (tenure-track or non-tenure-track, including Visiting Professors) appointment can occur when, following appropriate review, evaluation, and communication with the faculty member, it is judged that the faculty

1378 member is failing to fulfill the terms, conditions, and expectations of their appointment,
1379 or for financial exigency, professional incompetence, or cause.

1380

1381 Terminated faculty members alleging that the decision not to reappoint violated due
1382 process [as outlined in these bylaws or in the procedures developed by the administration
1383 and faculty (see Part Two, Article II, Section 1)] or was based upon discriminatory or 1384 prejudicial treatment may request review by the Committee on Academic Freedom and 1385 Grievance. The petitioning faculty member shall have the burden of introducing evidence
1386 sufficient to support a decision that the non-renewal resulted from a failure to follow due 1387 process or that the decision was based upon discriminatory or prejudicial facts and 1388 reasons. Review on appeal shall be limited to these areas of consideration.

1390 Notice of non-reappointment will be given in writing in accordance with the following:

1391

1392 a. For a full-time faculty member who has served less than one academic year,
1393 notice shall be given no later than March 1 of that academic year.

1394 b. For a full-time faculty member who has more than one year of service at 1395 Jacksonville University, notice of a terminal contract shall be given no later
1396 than September 15 of the terminal year.

1397

1398 In cases of removal for cause, and only if immediate harm to the individual or others is 1399 threatened by continuance, the faculty member shall be temporarily suspended by the 1400 president after consultation with the Committee on Academic Freedom and Grievance or 1401 assigned to other duties in lieu of suspension. Temporary suspension is appropriate only 1402 pending a hearing. Salary shall not be withheld during the period of temporary 1403 suspensions.

1404

1405 ARTICLE IX - TERMINATION OF A TENURED FACULTY MEMBER

1406

1407 Section 1. Reasons for Termination

1408

1409 Termination of a tenured faculty member's position may be carried out by the University 1410 only for financial exigency, for professional incompetence, or for cause, but not to 1411 restrain his or her academic freedom.

1412

1413 Section 2. Financial Exigency

1414

1415 Prior to a declaration of financial exigency by the University which could result in the 1416 termination of a faculty member's position, the Planning and Budget Committee must 1417 participate in the decision that a condition of financial exigency exists or is imminent. In 1418 such situations, after full justification is presented to the Faculty Assembly at a formal 1419 meeting, faculty reduction may take place.

Amendments: November 2007, February, March, November 2008, February 2009, May 2018, April 2019, May 2020, October 2022, February 2025

1421 When reduction for financial exigency is justified, it shall be done in the following order:

1422

1423

- Non-tenured faculty members: Annual evaluations shall be used as criteria.

1424

1426

1427

1428

1429

1430

1431

1432

1433

Tenured faculty members within the unit shall meet and forward a recommendation to be forwarded to the academic unit administrator. The dean, in consultation with the college's existing tenure and promotion committee or unit administrator, when appropriate, shall make final recommendation to the CAO.

- Tenured faculty members: Reduction among tenured faculty members may then take place on the basis of consistency with the University's mission and vision. The annual evaluations, departmental needs, University needs, and the recommendations of the unit administrators, deans, and CAO shall be used as criteria. Efforts shall be made prior to termination to place the faculty member in an appropriate position.

1439

A tenured appointment terminated due to financial exigency shall not be filled by a replacement for three years, unless the released faculty member has first been offered the reappointment in writing and given a reasonable time to accept or decline it.

1440

1442

1444

If questions arise about the financial survivability of the institution and the need to eliminate entire programs and departments, the Planning and Budget Committee, the Curriculum Committee, the Core Curriculum Committee, and the Executive Committee shall meet jointly to form recommendations to make to the CAO.

1445

Section 3. Removal for Professional Incompetence

1446

1448

1449

1450

1451

1453

Removal for professional incompetence may result after a tenured faculty member, placed on probation for two consecutive years following a post-tenure review, fails to make documented progress towards fulfilling the criteria for a successful review (see Part Two, Article II, Section 7) as indicated in annual evaluations with her/his unit head. The faculty member will be supported throughout this process with a combination of committed administrative feedback, mentorship, and opportunity to fulfill the criteria.

1454

1456

1457

1458

1459

1460

1462

The University Committee on Tenure and Promotion may review the FAAR(s) and annual evaluation(s) upon request of the faculty member and submit a recommendation supporting or not supporting the unit head's findings to the CAO. If the faculty member is still deemed unsuccessful by his/her unit head at the end of the two-year probationary period, notice of termination must follow the time guidelines set forth in Article VIII category c. Under these conditions, a final recommendation supporting or not supporting the termination decision will be submitted by the Committee on Tenure and Promotion to the CAO.

Amendments: November 2007, February, March, November 2008, February 2009, May 2018, April 2019, May 2020, October 2022, February 2025

1463 Section 4. Removal for Cause - Due Process

1464

1465 With the exception of discrimination and harassment cases, removal for cause must be 1466 based upon greater weight of the evidence that the faculty member should not continue to 1467 fulfill the terms and conditions of his or her appointment.

1468

1469 In the case of removal for cause, the termination procedure must guarantee due process
1470 and shall be preceded by these steps:

1471

1472 1) Discussions between the faculty member and the CAO looking toward a mutual 1473 settlement-

1474

1475 2) A full hearing by the Committee on Tenure and Promotion. If termination is 1476 considered too severe, the committee shall recommend to the president at the 1477 conclusion of its hearing one of the following: dismissal of charges, written 1478 reprimand placed in the permanent file, probation, suspension with or without 1479 pay, reduction in pay, or reduction in rank. The proceeding shall be kept 1480 confidential.

1481

1482 3) The president may accept the Committee's recommendation, reject it, or refer it
1483 back for reconsideration in light of new evidence or hearing irregularities. Prior to 1484 the final decision being rendered, the president or the faculty member may initiate 1485 a mutual meeting.

1486

1487 Section 5. Removal for Cause – Discretionary Suspension

1488

1489 Pending the final decision, and only if immediate harm to the individual or others is 1490 threatened by continuance, the faculty member shall be temporarily suspended by the 1491 president after consultation with the Committee on Tenure and Promotion or assigned to 1492 other duties in lieu of suspension. Temporary suspension is appropriate only pending a 1493 hearing. Salary shall not be withheld during the period of temporary suspension.

1494

1495 Section 6. Termination Contingencies

1496

1497 Upon termination for cause and upon recommendation of the Committee on Tenure and 1498 Promotion or of the president after consultation with the Committee on Tenure and 1499 Promotion, salary may be continued for a period not to exceed 12 months.

1500

1501 Section 7. Regarding Administrators with Faculty Rank

1502

1503 The regulations in this Article shall apply to administrative personnel who hold faculty
1504 rank, but not in their capacity as administrators.

When financially feasible, the University shall provide for leaves of absence with pay. The faculty member must be tenured at the time of application. The faculty member may apply for one semester at full-pay, or two semesters at half-pay, or two semesters at full pay with half-time teaching load. A faculty member becomes eligible to apply for leave with pay after a minimum of five consecutive years of service at Jacksonville University. Faculty will submit a proposal outlining their plan to the unit administrator and to the Faculty Affairs Committee a full year prior to the leave start date. No more than ten percent of the eligible faculty members may be awarded leaves with pay during any given semester. A faculty member may reapply for subsequent leaves after five additional years of service, not including the year on leave. Faculty receiving leaves with pay are expected to return to their full-time teaching positions.

1550

In order to be considered for compensated professional leave, a faculty member must submit a written statement of plans for scholarly work that can be expected to enhance the individual's professional development and the academic reputation of Jacksonville University, and which can justify the length of the leave time requested. Examples of such work include, but are not limited to, scholarly activities (e.g. research and creative activity), and continuing education. Requests for leaves with pay require recommendation by the Faculty Affairs Committee, the unit administrator, the academic dean, and the CAO. Upon completion of the period of leave the faculty member shall describe their activities in their faculty annual activities report.
